“PROJECT MOSES” COMES TO ST. THOMAS MORE

By Tony Damore

The remodeling of St. Thomas More Church has been completed, and we parishioners can return to a beautifully restored house of God to renew our spirit and revitalize our faith. With that revitalization in mind, the Knights of Columbus have donated a monument of the Ten Commandments, which are engraved on one side, and the Beatitudes on the reverse side. Engraved on the base is Christ’s answer when asked “What is the greatest commandment?” The memorial was placed in an area between the church and the school, and dedicated by our Pastor Father Andrew on Friday, June 6, 2008 immediately after the 9:00 am Mass.

We are very much in line with the essence of Project Moses. The project was begun in the summer of 2000 when a monument of the Ten Commandments had to be removed from the lawn of the Wyandotte County Courthouse in Kansas City, Kansas. The American Civil Liberties Union had threatened them with a lawsuit claiming it was a violation of the First Amendment to the Constitution.

John Menghini, a member of Ascension Parish in Overland Park, Kansas was both annoyed and alarmed, and tried to think of a constructive way to fight back. After discussing his options with many Jewish, Catholic and Protestant leaders, he came up with the plan to erect beautiful monuments of the Ten Commandments in places of worship. The commandments would be numbered using either the Jewish, St. Augustine or King James numbering, depending on the traditions of the place that they would be displayed.

Mr. Menghini reasoned that we rightfully get upset when the commandments are removed from public places. However, when you look at where these monuments will have the greatest impact on people’s lives, they need to be in our own places of worship, religious schools, and private properties. This way, the civil liberty groups will be unable to do anything about it.

Project Moses is seeking to establish 7,000 Ten Commandment monuments at churches, synagogues, religious schools, and private properties. The sale of these monuments will help to fund the $10 million memorial to the commandments planned for Washington, D.C. It will be similar in scope to the Lincoln and Jefferson Memorials. Placing a memorial of that magnitude of the Ten Commandments on public land in the nation’s capital will be the lifelong dream of Mr. Menghini and his brain-child, Project Moses. We wish him well. Until that dream is realized, we have our own memorial, right here at St. Thomas More Church to remind us every day of how God expects us to live and behave. It becomes for us another source of revitalization, and another way to get closer to God.

Fr. Andrew blesses the Ten Commandments Monument with holy water at the dedication.

The Color Guard from Fr. Raphael McCarthy Assembly 2294 joined Fr. Andrew at the dedication of the Project Moses Ten Commandments given to the parish by Council 10205.

GRAND KNIGHT'S REPORT
JULY 2008

Brothers,

As I start my term as your Grand Knight, I can't help but think how lucky and grateful

I am to be part of an organization like the Knights of Columbus, and how grateful I am to be a part of our council here at St Thomas More. I am blessed with a group of fine officers with many years of service with the Knights, who I believe have a strong commitment to serve others, and as a group, we will serve you. I hope to bring a fresh perspective to our council that will make potential new Knights want to take a long look at joining us.

At my installation, I told you my theme for this term is "Commitment" and, as I said, it means different things to different people. What I hope it means to you, my brother knights, is that we look at ourselves and our commitment to what Fr. McGivney had in mind when he formed our great organization over 125 years ago. That is, a renewed commitment to help those in need, wherever and whenever we can, and a commitment to make ourselves true soldiers of Jesus Christ, and servants of our Blessed Mother. The ideals of what the Knights of Columbus is all about are the four principles of our order - Charity, Unity, Fraternity and Patriotism - and I want to instill these in all of us. We are going to be a council this term of "DOERS", with many hands on projects for us to get involved in like Habitat for Humanity, as well as the other projects such as our annual food drive at Easter time, as well as the many projects we do to raise monies, along with our hard work for the charities we support.

I believe that when Fr. McGivney looked at the issues of his day, with the widows and orphans of his time, and how he knew Christ wanted him to help them, and as we look at our situations we have today in our time, it is all relative. We need to help our fellow man, and, by doing so, we have made a Commitment to make their lives a little better. And we do this by following Christ's teachings.

So my brothers as we go into the 2008/2009 fraternal year, I ask you all to make a Commitment to the Knights of Columbus and to yourselves, that together we can help the needy in our parish, as well as help our fellow Knights in need, and by doing so we do reaffirm our Commitment, to be Fathers, Husbands, Brother Knights, and good citizens.

One last thing brothers, don't forget our Broncos ticket sales, our peach sales, and please let me know if you have any ideas for our council to get involved with a worth while project that will bring the Knights in the community as "DOERS"!

This newsletter will be my last for this fraternal year. I can't tell how I have enjoyed working with everyone. The Ladies have been so helpful in helping us complete a very successful year. We increased our membership and developed so many new ideas in ways to support the Knights of Columbus and their programs. It was so much fun to see the Ladies Auxiliary and the Knights make things happen for the good of the Church and Community. I know Alice Allen, our next president, will be continuing the path of unity with the Knights. This month we had some extra money, so we brought our ideas to the table on supporting several charities. They are: Our Lady of the Valley Catholic Church in Windsor, St. Joseph's Veterans Home, RAAP, Fr. Ed Judy House and Fr. Woody's Haven of Hope. Each of these organizations will be receiving $300.00.

I wish you all a very wonderful and safe summer enjoying your family and friends. After all, that's what it is all about. Thanks again to all, and I will be around to continue to work with the Ladies and their programs. God Bless and let's make 2008 and 2009 a fantastic year.

Yours in Christ,

MOTHER THERESA'S SISTERS NEED HELP

The sisters are moving from Seton House to St. Joseph's at 6th & Galapago. Old high school classrooms are being remodeled into living quarters for sisters and dormitories for homeless women. The Council will help by providing six-man teams to help paint. The painting will begin after the remodeling is completed around August 1. There will be no ceilings to paint.

The sisters also need help moving. We will need several truck teams with two guys per truck. Anyone that can provide a pickup or other truck would be a big help. The move will take place mid-August

The sisters are asking for a team of five women to help with the packing. Men are not allowed to help with this, probably for personal reasons.

Council 10205 is in full support of Mother Theresa's Sisters of Mercy, who have done outstanding work in the area of the AIDS disease. Volunteers will be solicited at the July business meeting and thereafter. Please make plans to assist in this important project.

THE WISDOM DISCOUNT

Instead of a senior discount, my Chiropractor gives me a "wisdom" discount. I'm 69 years old and amazed I made it this far. Am I "wise?" I don't think so. But I am wiser than I was last year, and the year before, etc. etc.

Many of my fellow Knights are in their "wiser" years. They impress me a lot. They lead healthy, energetic, happy lives. Most impressive, however, is their spirituality and commitment to God. I'm not talking about what they do in church or the many things they do for the church. I'm talking about their individual holiness. You can see it in their eyes; you can tell it by the way they live. They are my hope for the future.

If you have lived as long as some of us have, I know you have been through a lot. You don't have to tell me. I know from my own experience. I also know you are strong, or you wouldn't be here. As Catholics and members of the Knights of Columbus, I know about your commitment to spirituality and the Church. I also know that your number one disappointment is in family members that have left the church. You would give anything to turn that around.

If you have been a Knight for a number of years, there must be a reason. So many men come and go, but you have remained. I believe it is because you have established close friends in the Knights. Also, you have found a way to pay back a little on what has been so freely given to you. Like me, you are grateful for the chance and you respond by giving back and staying active.

Old guys talk about old friends and important events of their lives. They also talk about their aches and pains. If they are veterans, they almost never talk about the war they heroically served in. You will hardly ever hear about their achievements, though they are many. You may never hear how brave or persevering they were. But trust me; no wimp will live long enough to get the "wisdom" discount!--- Bruce Tawson, PGK, PFN

KNIGHTS HELP STM YOUTH ON CULTURAL EXCHANGE

Tony Damore, KofC PR, presenting check to Sue Frank.

On June 19, 2008, Jim Murphy and Tony Damore, represented the Knights of Columbus Council 10205 in presenting a check for $1,000 to Sue Frank as she was preparing to take 10 juniors and seniors, herself and another chaperone on a cultural exchange trip to Mexico. Sue, from the Office of Youth Ministry at St. Thomas More, is the High School Youth Minister. She was so appreciative of the donation, since she and her crew are driving to El Paso, TX, and the exchange students from Mexico, will be meeting them there and driving the St. Thomas More group into Mexico. Sue remarked that the check will be very helpful, since the price of gas is so high, and the days so hot, that they will have to use the air-conditioning most of the time, using even more gas.

WHAT A DAY FOR A PICNIC!

By Tony Damore

Whoever picked June 14th as the day for the Knights of Columbus Council 10205 picnic, surely picked a beautiful day. The temperature was in the low 90's and there was not a cloud in the beautiful Colorado sky. Joe Lamb and family began setting everything up, as Dale Weides began pouring the charcoal and getting the fire ready to barbecue. While they were doing that, Grand Knight Rod Fiore and his wife Pat were busy measuring off the Bocce court as others were setting the pegs for the horseshoe pitching. It was already 11:00 a.m., the time it was supposed to begin, so the general scene was reminiscent of a pack of ants, each one going about its business, doing its chores, and only occasionally, bumping into one another. The Auxiliary women were setting all the side dishes in the proper order as they arrived, and in no time, the feast was lookin' good.

Even before Dale started barbecuing, sides were chosen and the bocce games began. Since it was also Flag Day, a number of ex-military saluted Art Hut's beautiful flag T-shirt, since there was no other flag to be seen.

The cheerful socializing slowly quieted down as the hamburgers, brats and hot dogs began to be consumed along with all the wonderful side dishes and desserts. Because of the wonderful job Tim McKenna did in rallying the forces to come to the picnic, an emergency crew had to run to the nearest super market to buy some chicken breasts, because all the burgers, brats and dogs were history. It was a grand picnic and everyone left DeKoevend Park with a full tummy, and lots of good memories; just the way a grand picnic should end.

The pizza man, Sir Knight, Len Mazzi, attacks the food table of plenty at the picnic.

"Just how many Knights does it take to count the Bocce Balls? It depends on whether or not they had their shoes on or off (Toes)

WHY BE A KNIGHT?

Bobby Rogers, Membership Director

So why would anyone want to become a Knight of Columbus? You know, those old (ha!) dudes with the funny hats. I suppose I could go to the K of C homepage and cut and paste something really well written... but on second thought, I'll just come from the heart.

There are men who talk the talk, and there are men who walk the walk. For me being a Knight is about walking the walk. What walk is that you might ask? The walk with Jesus that puts your faith into action.

I recognize that there are some men who are called to be contemplatives, and I have no issue with that. The Church needs contemplatives who dedicate their lives to prayer. If that is your calling, then may Our Lord bless you. But for the other 99.9% of us men, we are by nature action-oriented. We look for solutions, we act, we do, we perform, we fix things, we figure things out... it's how we're wired. So what are you going to do?

"In truth I tell you, in so far as you did this to one of the least of these brothers of mine, you did it to me." Matt 25:40

"In truth I tell you, in so far as you neglected to do this to one of the least of these, you neglected to do it to me." Matt 25:45

"What does it profit, my brethren, if a man says he has faith but has not works? Can his faith save him? If a brother or sister is ill-clad and in lack of daily food, and one of you says to them, 'Go in peace, be warmed and filled,' without giving them the things needed for the body, what does it profit? So faith by itself, if it has no works, is dead". James 2:14-17

"No one lights a lamp to put it under a tub; they put it on the lamp-stand where it shines for everyone in the house. In the same way your light must shine in people's sight, so that, seeing your good works, they may give praise to your Father in heaven." Matt 5:15-16

So as a Knight you get to put your faith into action. You get to perform great works of charity. This works for me.

Secondly, I personally believe that God the Father created all men to be warriors in some fashion. What is important enough for you to defend? Your wife, your children, your parents, your home, your country? Well I am here to tell you that unless men of character, men of faith, and men of courage are brave enough to stand up and defend the Truth that is proclaimed by The Church against the powers that rule this world, our wives, children, grandchildren, and ultimately our country will pay the price. Many of our children and grandchildren are already paying the price by accepting the lies that the world has to offer and living their lives accordingly. Your action or inaction has a consequence... so what are you going to do? Are you bold enough, brave enough, and passionate enough to stand up for your faith, The Church, Our Lord... because they are all inextricably joined together. To deny one is to deny all, to fail to stand up and fight for one is a failure to stand up for all (if you are indeed a Catholic).

So as a Knight you get to be a warrior for the faith, The Church, and Our Lord... how exciting is that!

Thirdly, as a Knight you get to fraternize (hang out with) some interesting and very cool men who just happen to be very Catholic and, while not all Saints (maybe Saints in progress), they are men whom you can count on, brothers as it were. Men from 18-90+ years of age who have experience, wisdom, energy, and can be a shoulder to lean on. And, for me, in this "dog-eat-dog, kick'em while they're down" world we live in, that's a pretty big deal.

So as a Knight, you get to join a "Band of Brothers" who are there for you. All 1.7 million of us!

OK, so you're busy. You have a job (or you're looking for one), you have a family; you have other commitments... who doesn't? Do you have 24 hours in a year? Do you have 48 hours? A little quick math tells me that 48 hours given to the Knights over the course of a year amounts to less than one half of one per cent... a fraction of your time to make a difference. You probably spend more time than that thinking about what socks to wear.

At the end of the day, I cannot fathom why every man who holds himself out to be a true Catholic does not at least prayerfully consider joining the Knights of Columbus. It's about being a man of action, it's about being a warrior, it's about being a brother, and it's about walking with Our Lord while holding hands with Our Lady. It's about making a difference.
